

VALUING LANDSCAPE CONFERENCE 2018

CONNECTING PEOPLE, PLACE AND NATURE

IFLA EUROPE
INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION
OF LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTS

Landscape
Institute
Inspiring great places

UNIVERSITY
of
GREENWICH

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

UNIVERSITY OF GREENWICH, 6-7 SEPTEMBER

#VLConf2018

09.00

Chair

Samira Ahmed, BBC Journalist and Broadcaster opens the conference

09.10

Welcome

Adam White, President, Landscape Institute and Director, Davies White

Tony Williams, President, IFLA Europe and Principal Landscape Architect, Transport Infrastructure Ireland

Professor David Maguire, Vice-Chancellor, University of Greenwich

09.20

Opening keynote session

09.40

The changing role of value

With society's needs, values and habits shifting, it is vital that landscape responds. Hear about:

- Key future trends and challenges that the sector faces
- How external influences will affect the value society attributes to landscape and place
- Design inspired by human experience and social action

Jan Christian, CEO, Vestre

10.05

Understanding and responding to future trends

Join the debate about how future trends will have an impact on the value we place on landscape and how the profession may need to change to meet the needs of generations to come. Discuss:

- The connection of the environment, productivity and housing needs in future place-making
- The social, economic, educational and technological changes that will transform our lives
- New skills needed for the future
- International challenges and opportunities

Professor David Maguire, Vice-Chancellor, University of Greenwich

Wei Yang, Founder, Wei Yang Partners and Vice Chair, RTPI International Committee

Daniel Cook, CEO, Landscape Institute

Jan Christian, CEO, Vestre

10.45

Networking and refreshments

11.05

Valuing the Intangible

Hear from leaders in design, infrastructure and conservation about how their sectors have tackled the challenges of valuing intangible assets and benefits.

- New frameworks and methods of evaluation
- Understanding cultural, social and economic value
- Accounting for and demonstrating the value of the intangible
- Alternative viewpoints, risks and challenges

Sarah Weir OBE, CEO, Design Council

Professor Ian Hodge, Land Economy, University of Cambridge

Ursula Hartenberger, Global Head of Sustainability, RICS Brussels

Karen Ellis, Director of Science and Policy, WWF UK

11.55

Case study: Ottawa

How Natural Capital Accounting is vital for urban growth

A practical example of how Natural Capital Accounting has helped an urban area to thrive.

- Demonstration of natural capital stocks and flows
- Adding value to urban areas through risk assessment and accounting
- How do we make Natural Capital Accounting work for the landscape profession?

Mark Kristmanson, National Capital Commission, Ottawa, Canada

12.15

Unlocking the intangible - what should we measure?

- Should we value all, part or none of the landscape?
- What are the risks or challenges?
- How do we measure intangible assets?
- How is landscape important to cities and their design?

Sarah Weir OBE, CEO, Design Council

Mark Kristmanson, National Capital Commission, Ottawa, Canada

Professor Ian Hodge, Land Economy, University of Cambridge

Ursula Hartenberger, Global Head of Sustainability, RICS Brussels

Karen Ellis, Director of Science and Policy, WWF UK

12.45

Lunch

13.45

Creating value for people: wellbeing and green infrastructure

John Lewis, Executive Director, Peabody

14.05

Maintaining value for people, environment and community

Find out how landscape and place-making can make a deeper, lasting impact on communities.

- Hear how environmental value improves quality of life and reduces health inequality
- See examples of success and what policymakers should learn from them
- Consider the value of landscape for an ageing population
- How can we better engage communities to meet their needs?

Helen Noble, CEO, Pennine Prospects

Alison King, Principal Landscape Architect, LUC

Jennette Emery-Wallis, Director, Landscape Architecture, LUC

Miriam Weber, Senior Advisor, Health Urban Living and Resilience, Utrecht, Netherlands

Roo Angell, Co-Founder, Sayes Court CIC

- 14.55 Fostering competition and value: lessons from place-makers
How landscape and place management address issues of urban value and competitiveness. Hear about:
- Place management and its long-term sustainability
 - New ways of connecting stakeholders with landscape
 - Partnerships and innovation for funding
 - An integrated skills policy that supports stronger outcomes for local level transformation
- Nuria Garcia, Landscape Technical Director, Urban Institute, Barcelona City Council
Montserrat Prado, Head of Restoration, Urban Institute, Barcelona City Council
Professor Ares Kalandides, Senior Fellow and Director of the Institute of Place Management, Manchester Metropolitan University
Simon Quin, Director and Visiting Professor at the Institute of Place Management, Manchester Metropolitan University
Julia Georgi, Associate Professor, Landscape Architecture and Vice Chairman, Panhellenic Association of Landscape Architects
- 15.55 Afternoon refreshments and networking
- 16.15 Announcement of the winner of the Ebbsfleet Garden City: Landscape for Healthy Living Ideas Competition
- 16.30 Creating a new kind of value for the future
How can design, landscape and place professionals be bolder through leadership, inspiration and influence?
- What is the added value in better leadership?
 - Attracting leaders: who and what is needed?
 - How can we evolve to meet future needs?
 - What could we do differently to make more impact?
- Professor Antje Stokman, Architecture and Landscape, HafenCity University, Hamburg
Dr Antonella Radicchi, Principal Scientist at Hush City Mobile Lab, Institute of City and Regional Planning, Berlin
Suzanne O'Connell, Landscape Architect, The Decorators
Joris Voeten, Senior Engineer Urban Green Space, Urban Roofscapes
- 17.20 President's closing remarks
Adam White, President, Landscape Institute and Director, Davies White
- 17.30 Post-conference networking
Experiencing the next generation: technology, student exhibition and competition entries
- 18:00 Nordic Life in Urban Spaces! Reception sponsored by Vestre
Meet the man behind the disruptive 'Parklets 2.0' that is replacing car parking in Nordic cities. Ashley Conn was also the lead architect for the transformation of Aker Brygge, one of Oslo's most interesting outdoor public spaces. Enjoy a mini-concert with up-and-coming Norwegian artist Hanne Mjøen. This special event will include landscape architects, architects, urban designers, planners, leaders, place-makers, developers, engineers, and many more with an interest in the built and natural environment. Food and drinks available for everyone but please register in advance.
<https://vestre.com/london2018/>

On day two, the agenda includes several options throughout the day for delegates to select the sessions of their choice. Join site visits to Thamesmead, the Olympic Park, the Greenwich neighbourhood and Deptford Park, or attend sessions and workshops at the University of Greenwich.

Delegates are required to pre-select their sessions before the event. For further details, please visit: <https://www.landscapeinstitute.org/valuing-landscape-conference-2018/>

Schedule at a glance

	Conference p.7	Site visits p.8-9
09.00-09.15	Welcome	08.00-13.30
09.15-09.55	The value of management The value of science	Site visit 1 Thamesmead a The future of urban realm b Inequality and urban landscape responses c Healthy cities d Green infrastructure
09.55-10.45	Post-Brexit environment policy: opportunities and challenges	Site visit 2 Olympic Park and Stratford Business Improvement District
10.45-11.05	Networking and refreshments
11.05-11.45	Landscape value: the evolving definition
11.45-12.35	Landscape value: the impact of planning
12.35-13.30	Unlocking future value through management and science
13.30-14.30	Lunch
14.30-16.30	Workshop 1 Natural Capital: what's the opportunity? Workshop 2 'Valued landscapes': how will the new NPPF impact on landscapes? Workshop 3 Future talent needs for the profession	Site visit 3 From the ground up: exploring the fast-changing Greenwich Peninsula O2 and Emirates Site visit 4 Royal Museums, Greenwich and the Greenwich Maritime Museum Site visit 5 Managing the extraordinary landscape heritage of the Royal Parks Greenwich Site visit 6 Guided Greenwich 'Soundwalk' Site visit 7 Sayes Court, Deptford and neighbourhood Site visit 8 Deptford Park
16.30	Reception Networking with IFLA Europe delegates
17.00	Welcome to IFLA Europe General Assembly
17.30	IFLA Europe Pecha Kucha

Conference Sessions

- 09.00-09.15 Welcome
Ed Wall, University of Greenwich
Ursula Forzcek-Bratanies, IFLA Europe
- 09.15-09.55 The value of management
Sue Biggs CBE, Royal Horticultural Society
- The value of science
Rosie Hails, National Trust
- 09.55-10.45 Post-Brexit environment policy: opportunities and challenges
The changing shape of environmental policy across the UK and Europe.
Ursula Forzcek-Bratanies, IFLA Europe
Howard Davies, NAAONB
Sarah Bryan, Exmoor National Park
Ben Allen, IEEP
Rosie Hails, National Trust
- 10.45-11.05 Networking and refreshments
- 11.05-11.45 Landscape value: the evolving definition
UK and Republic of Ireland landscape change monitoring and mapping to identify trends and challenges that inform future landscape policy and management. Updates from the interagency team working across the UK and Ireland on new approaches and frameworks in assessing and defining landscape value.
Tony Williams, IFLA Europe
Jill Bullen, Natural Resources Wales
Chris Bolton, Natural England
Neil Rainey, DAERA Northern Ireland Environment Agency
Deborah Sandals, Scottish Natural Heritage
- 11.45-12.35 Landscape value: the impact of planning
Updates from the planning sector on how it is addressing the value of landscape.
John Acres, RTPI
Dr Deb Upadhyaya, Homes England, The Academy of Urbanism
Ramune Sanderson, Terra Firma
Simon Cook, Lichfields UK
- 12.35-13.30 Unlocking future value through management and science
How we can unravel the value of protected natural spaces and forests using skills spanning management, horticulture and ecology.
Alison Barnes, New Forest National Park Authority
Paul Nolan, The Mersey Forest
Euan Hall, The Land Trust
Laura Gatti, Laura Gatti Consultants
- 13.30-14.30 Lunch

Workshops

Workshop 1 14.30-16.00

Natural Capital: what's the opportunity?

The UK government has stated that it wants 'to be the first generation to leave our environment in a better state than we found it'. This is being driven by new economic and environmental thinking, and pioneering measurement tools. Using practical examples, this workshop explores how Natural Capital can be an opportunity for the landscape profession.

Bruce Howard, Ecosystems Knowledge Network

Jim Rouquette, Natural Capital Solutions

Ece Ozdemiroglu, Eftec TBC

Richard Webb, Barton Wilmore TBC

Nick White, Natural England TBC

Workshop 2 14.30-16.00

'Valued landscapes': how will the new NPPF impact on landscapes?

This workshop will explore the new National Planning Policy Framework (NPPF), what it means for landscape, and how the contentious policy on 'valued landscapes' will be applied in practice.

Rebecca Knight, LUC

Michelle Bolger, Expert Landscape Consultancy

Peter Radmall, Environmental Planning Consultant

Dr Ashley Bowes, Cornerstone Barristers

Workshop 3 14.30-16.30

Future talent needs for the profession

This workshop is your chance to contribute to and get involved in major initiatives linked to the future talent needs of the profession:

Have your say on what future skills are needed in the landscape profession.

Hear more about #chooselandscape, our new national careers campaign and learn about apprenticeships plans for the profession.

Hear the latest about the EU LAND 21, a project for European landscape architecture education and training.

Professor Gintaras Stauskis, EU LAND 21 Project Coordinator

Poppy Smith, Head of External Affairs, Landscape Institute

Christina Hirst, Consultant to LI on Entry Standards and Apprenticeships

Site Visits

Site visit 1 08.00-13.30

Thamesmead

Join conference sponsor Peabody at this remarkable site, one of Europe's largest landscape-led housing and regeneration projects.

Choose from one of four inspiring site visits:

1 The future of urban realm

Noel Farrer, Farrer Huxley Associates

Professors Steven Millington and Simon Quinn, IPM

2 Inequality and urban landscape responses

Paula Hines, Peabody

Kate Batchelor, Peabody

3 Healthy cities

Sarah Jones Morris, Landsmith Associates

Francois Xavier Lallemand, Lallemand

4 Green infrastructure

Dr Phil Askew, Peabody

Richard Webb, Barton Wilmore

Nicholas Wright, Polypipe

Site visit 2 08.00-13.30

Olympic Park and Stratford Business Improvement District

Discover the many different elements that make this major East London regeneration project a successful place for people to live, work and play.

Ruth Holmes, Head of Landscape, Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park

Tom Armour, Global Landscape Architecture Leader, Arup

Gianluca Rizzo, Stratford Original BID

Site visit 3 14.30-16.30

From the ground, up: exploring the fast-changing Greenwich Peninsula O2 and Emirates

Explore how landscape practitioners and suppliers can combine their skills to adapt and respond to changing briefs with a focus on the 5000 home development at Greenwich Peninsula, home of the O2 and the Emirates Cable Car.

Asil Besim, Hardscape

Mike Martin, Turkington Martin

Site Visits

Site visit 4 14.30-16.30

Royal Museums, Greenwich and the Greenwich Maritime Museum

Greenwich Museums are set in a historic Royal Park with astonishing views. LUC will address some of the challenges of working with a site that combines the legacy of Wren with views of Canary Wharf.

Elizabeth Evered, LUC

Site visit 5 14.30-16.30

Managing the extraordinary landscape heritage of the Royal Parks Greenwich

This visit will explore this 'prodigious Manor of Pleasaunce' and the diverse and conflicting challenges that the Royal Parks face. It will consider opportunities to address issues, conserve/restore the Grade 1 listed landscape, invest in facilities for a growing and diverse local audience, while greatly enhancing learning, volunteering and understanding of this rural landscape in an urban setting.

Jane Pelly, Royal Parks Greenwich

Graham Dear, Royal Parks Greenwich

Site visit 6 14.30-16.30

Guided Greenwich 'Soundwalk'

Enjoy a unique guided walk through a pre-defined route, take part in a digital evaluation of the sonic environment and join in a group discussion informed by the data gathered during the walk.

Dr Antonella Radicchi, Institute of City and Regional Planning, Berlin

Site visit 7 14.30-16.30

Sayes Court, Deptford and neighbourhood

A walk from Greenwich to the neighbouring area of Deptford, where centuries of history have formed a core part of the identity of those living here today, independent, questioning and proud. Explore the different approaches that development has taken over the last twenty years, and the ways in which the public realm has been informed, adopted or adapted by the communities which bring them to life.

Roo Angell and Bob Bagley, Co-Founders, Sayes Court CIC

Site visit 8 14.30-16.30

Deptford Park

This site visit will explore the planting of community orchards, seasonal care, maintenance, recruiting community volunteers, fundraising and celebration events. Gain an understanding of how planting community orchards acts as a catalyst for wider landscape improvements and recognise the interrelationship between active residents, local authority and the older established community, and their contribution to mental, social and physical well-being.

Carole Wright, Community Gardener and Environmental Manager

Deptford Folk Founders

JOINTLY PRESENTED BY

GOLD

SILVER

BRONZE

SUPPORTER

STRATEGIC PARTNERS

